NATIONAL SHRINE
OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE
Ipswich, Mass.

The Mother of God wept over her wayward children at La Salette in the French Alps in 1846. She tearfully explained that peace depends upon man's submission to God. This beautiful New England Shrine impresses 100,000 pilgrims annually with this message.

Pub. by Nyack Art Pictures, Inc., West Nyack, N. Y.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Post Card

Rev. 5-62
76942